AND ORDER
STIPULATION REGARDING
PROVISION OF RIDE-IDENTIFYING
INFORMATION

1           WHEREAS, the Court held a case-management conference in this proceeding on June 23,
2 2022;

3           WHEREAS, the parties' June 20, 2022 case-management statement reflected Plaintiffs'
4 counsel's agreement to provide information to Lyft in order to facilitate Lyft's identification of the 5 Plaintiffs and rides at issue in the complaints filed by Plaintiffs' counsel;

6           NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AS FOLLOWS:

7           1.       The parties request that the Court enter an order that for any complaint that will
8 become part of this proceeding or is otherwise filed by any counsel in this proceeding, Plaintiffs'
9 counsel will make best efforts to provide to counsel to Lyft the "true names" of all Plaintiffs prior
10 to or contemporaneous with filing a complaint, but in all events no more than five days after filing
11 that complaint; and

12           2.       The parties request that the Court enter an order that for any complaint filed after 13 the date of the order, Plaintiffs' counsel will make best efforts to provide information sufficient to
14 identify the ride at issue either in the complaint itself, or separately to Lyft's counsel
15 contemporaneously with filing the complaint, but in all events no more than seven days after filing
16 that complaint. The information Plaintiffs' counsel shall make best efforts to provide includes (a)
17 a bona fide "ride receipt" and a brief description of the allegations; and/or (b) the name, phone
18 number and email address of the account-holder who ordered the ride, the date and city/state of the 19 ride, a brief description of the allegations, and such other basic information as may be necessary to 20 identify the ride, such as pick-up and drop-off location, driver name, etc.; and

21           3.       The parties request that the Court enter an order that for any complaint that has
22 already been filed and for which Plaintiffs' counsel has not yet provided the information reflected
23 in paragraph 1 and 2 above, Plaintiffs' counsel will provide this information on a rolling basis, and 24 shall endeavor to provide all such information to counsel to Lyft by no later than July 31, 2022.

[PROPOSED] ORDER REGARDING PROVISION OF RIDE-IDENTIFYING INFORMATION

Having reviewed the stipulation jointly filed by Plaintiffs' counsel and counsel for Lyft, Inc., the Court:

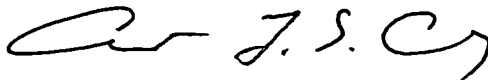

1. Orders that for any complaint against Lyft that will become part of this proceeding or is otherwise filed by any counsel involved in this proceeding, counsel filing the complaint will make best efforts to provide to counsel for Lyft the "true names" of each Plaintiff in that complaint prior to, in, or contemporaneous with filing the complaint, and in all events no more than five days after filing the complaint;

2. Orders that for any future complaint against Lyft that will become part of this proceeding or is otherwise filed by any counsel in this proceeding, counsel filing the complaint will make best efforts to provide information sufficient to identify the ride or rides at issue in the complaint or, if not in the complaint, to counsel for Lyft contemporaneously with filing the complaint, but in all events no more than seven days after filing that complaint.. The information Plaintiffs' counsel shall make best efforts to provide includes (a) a bona fide "ride receipt" and a brief description of the allegations; and/or (b) the name, phone number and email address of the account-holder who ordered the ride, the date and city/state of the ride, a brief description of the allegations, and such other basic information as may be necessary to identify the ride, such as pick-up and drop-off location, driver name, etc.

3. Orders that for any complaint that has already been filed and for which Plaintiffs' counsel has not yet provided the information reflected in paragraphs 1 and 2 above, counsel will provide this information on a rolling basis, and shall endeavor to provide all such information to counsel to Lyft by no later than July 31, 2022.

IT IS SO ORDERED

Dated: 8/1/22

 Hon. Andrew Y.S. Cheng
 Judge of the Superior Court
